MUSIC THEATRE VISUAL ARTS SONG TALENT PROGRAMME

If you think you are talented in MUSIC, SONG, THEATRE or VISUAL ARTS (Painting, Installation art and Sculpture) then don't miss this chance. Spring of Culture Festival is launching a Talent Programme that will select the most talented young Bahrainis between the age of 12 and 26 and give them a unique international learning experience.

Young talented Bahrainis are invited to submit a sample of their acts/works on CD/DVD according to the conditions and requirements set forth in this application form. Expert committees will choose the top individuals in each area based on predetermined selection criteria and a clear process, which also includes interviews.

If you are selected you will be entitled to enrol in specialised workshops that will be conducted during the month of February by international specialists in each area of talent. In addition, during the Spring of Culture Festival 2010, the top six candidates in each area will be merged to perform with some of the international performing groups that are part of the festival's calendar. There will also be other benefits to the successful candidates, which will be announced at a later stage.

For more information on the programme you can log on to:
